Allen L. Yohn

March 5, 1934 - November 23, 2017

It is with heavy hearts that we share the passing of Allen L. Yohn of Palmyra on Thanksgiving Day, November 23, 2017. Allen was a resident of The Gardens Nursing Home in Campbelltown since March of 2017. Allen identified himself as a Marine, a husband, father, grandfather, son, brother and friend who loved his country and family. He was involved in the above ground atomic testing while in the Marine Corps in Nevada in 1955 and was serving his country during the cease-fire of the Korean War. He was an avid hunter and fisherman who loved the outdoors, spending time with his dogs and being in nature. He was a retired Hershey Foods employee where he was the supervisor of the cocoa refining department and where he was well known for his pranks and practical jokes. Allen is survived by his loving wife of 62 years who was with him when he passed, Lois R. (Wagner) Yohn of Palmyra, his children Vicki Jacobi of Hampton, SC, Theresa Bowley of Palmyra, and Craig Yohn of Chesapeake, VA, three grandchildren, Marissa Bowley of Palmyra, and Karl and Kayleigh Yohn of Smithfield, VA, his brother Harold Yohn and his wife Alice of Annville, PA, sister-in-law, Audrey Yohn of Middletown, and cousins Beverly Bross and her husband Tom of Palmyra, Mack Yohn and his wife, Helen of Carlisle, Bonnie Lehman and her husband Dennis of Lebanon and Bernie Yohn and his wife Kathy of Lebanon. He was pre-deceased by his older sister, Helen, when she was 6 years old whom he adored and missed his entire life, his father, John C. Yohn, his mother Sula (Schlegel) Yohn, and his brother John D. Yohn whom he admired and looked up to immensely. He was a member of the United Church of Christ in Palmyra, a member of the Palmyra Sportsmen's Association and was inducted into the Palmyra High School's Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. Allen will be remembered for his generous heart, giving nature, his selflessness and unspoken strength. He was a wonderful husband, father and friend who will be greatly missed. Graveside services will be held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that any donations be made to Kindred Hospice, 4660 Trindle Road, Suite #204, Camp Hill, PA 17011.
