“ Extending deepest sympathy to the Brandt Family at this time of loss. I am one of Josh's cousins on my father's (Shott) branch of the family tree. I always enjoyed talking to Josh and listening to his funny stories and adventures. He had a dry wit that I appreciated. I also appreciated the many times that he and Eva visited my parents in later years; they definitely looked forward to those visits. He has been reunited now with his beloved Eva, getting ready for another road trip somewhere beyond a new horizon. Rest in peace, Josh. We give thanks for a long life well lived.
