“ Oh Bubba, thank you for being one of my best friends for 20+years. Even though we haven't hung out as much since I got married and had a 2nd child we always kept in contact. I'm glad I got to spend your last few days with you. I will never forget I took you on your first plane ride to Disney, our spontaneous trips to Atlantic City, going to races, camping, me making you playing the game show at the mall (oh you were so mad at me because you hated going up in front of crowds but you did great ) and the list goes on and on. You were a wonderful son to momma, whom I love like my own. Your cooking on the grill was the absolute best and you were always trying to fatten me up with your good cooking (it worked lol). You were a hard worker and I thank you for everything. You will forever be loved and missed my dear friend. I love you Bubba

“ My dearest uncle. Thank you. Thank you for always making me feel like I was the bestest girl in the world. Thank you for taking care of grandma the way you did for so many years. I will never forget your laugh, your knack for one-liners, your uncanny ability to communicate so many different things with merely a “thumbs up”, your signature railroad hat, and you and uncle George manning the grill at BBQ’s. You really did make the best chicken in the universe. I will love you forever and always.
