“ We became neighbors to Bob and Linda when we moved into the farm house apartment. I was just 7 years old and my sister was 3. Over the next 5 years, we spent a lot of time together. I have vivid memories of handing Bob tools as he worked on cars in the garage and of walking back to the house carrying a pheasant he had just shot. I'm not so sure I was old enough to do that, but it felt like an adventure. Rides on the motorcycle were awesome! I remember falling off one time, and Bob said, "Don't tell your mom or we won't be able to ride together anymore." I was sure to keep that a secret . We watched the car races at the local track, played card games and shared lots of meals together. Several years later, Bob agreed to escort me down the aisle on my wedding day. I was nervous when we took those first steps into the sanctuary and wanted to quicken my pace. Bob gently squeezed my arm and whispered, "We can take our time." Bob may not have been my father by blood, but he was certainly a father to me in so many other ways. He shared his time, sense of humor, gentleness and love, and gave me so many fatherly memories that I have and will always cherish. I know you're resting comfortably and enjoying heaven, but know you will be missed. Love you!
