“ Ron was quiet and unassuming, always a gentleman in any professional interactions with him. My sympathies to the family.

“ The Gingrich family are longtime friends through First E.C. Church. Ron was my dad's best man and best friend and his star tenor in the choir for many years. In planning my wedding over 22 years ago, one of the first things I knew I wanted was for Ron to sing "The Lord's Prayer." He built the house I grew up in, very similar to his house. He always seemed strong and fit, even if he didn't feel like it with his many years of health struggles. He was a humble man of great faith. We celebrate that he is finally completely healed, reunited with Dot and able to meet Emily. May God's peace and comfort be with you all.
