“ Such shocking news to hear of Scott’s passing. He was the kindest most gentle person with a wonderful sense of humour. We will remember him fondly and cherish our memories together during our many years of camping at Presqu’ile Park in Brighton, Ontario. Our most sincere condolences to the entire Ellison family who have been such amazing friends for all these years. You are all in our prayers. - The Kennedy’s

“ Our hearts are broken. Scott was an extraordinary man whose simplicity of life made him the best! Scott has been a very dear friend and was known to our sons as Uncle Scott. We spent many fun times together. He was wise and caring. We laughed alot and had some serious conversations about life. He was a great listener and always provided great advise. He loved his Pennsylvania Dutch background!

The world lost a wonderful man where his greatness was in the simplicity of his life. This is such an unfortunate event that we don't have a choice but to accept it and move on and live our life to the fullest following the example of this man; simplicity, honesty, humility and decency.

We will miss him immensely! Godspeed my friend.

Deepest sympathy to all of his family. We share your pain in the passing of a wonderful man! Our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

“ Scott was a beautiful human being. He was so caring about everything. My husband, friends and family shared many good times together with Scott. He was so gentle in the way he spoke about people and things in general. I will miss him greatly.
