“ Albert’s father was my grandmothers brother. I remember Albert from when I was young. We would visit Uncle Sherman and if I remember Albert had lived close by Uncle Sherman at that time. Then I also remember visiting Albert in Annville where he also lived and had his business. Can remember the lawnmower sitting around. I am so saddened by his passing. May his daughter and family find comfort in the memories. With deepest sympathy, Anita Ambrosia Hunsicker

“ My friendship started 24 years ago. I needed parts for our lawn mower and a friend told me about Moonshine. Went to the shop meet him and he was so helpful to me. There after each year, I would make my trips to Moonshine over the years we became friends like I am sure for others as well. I will miss my spring trip over to see you my friend. Rest in peace my friend.
