

Andrew J. Brajkovich Jr.

November 18, 1942 - October 12, 2017

Andrew J. Brajkovich, Jr., 74, of Lebanon, passed away on Thursday, October 12, 2017, at the Colonial Park Care Center, Harrisburg. He was the husband of Louise M. Brajkovich.

Born in Lebanon on November 18, 1942, he was the son of the late Andrew J. and Mary Zauher Brajkovich. For a number of years, he owned and operated Andy's Excavating in Grantville. He also had been a poultry grower. Andrew attended St. Paul the Apostle Church in Annville and he was a member of the Lebanon Knights of Columbus, serving one year as their Faithful Navigator. He enjoyed his excavating business and loved quad racing and moto-cross. For several years he was on the Pit crew for Bobby Gerhart, Sr. He especially enjoyed going to car shows and traveling with his wife and friends.

In addition to his wife of 39 years, he is survived by his sons Joseph A. Brajkovich of Round Rock, TX, Steven M. and his wife Tracy Brajkovich of Grantville and Brylen J. and his wife Tiana Brajkovich of Jonestown; brother William "Bill" Brajkovich and his grandchildren Dylan, Megan, Morgan and Ella.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Tuesday, October 17, 2017, at 11 a.m. at St. Paul the Apostle Church, 125 S. Spruce St., Annville. Interment will follow at St. Paul's Acre in Grand View Memorial Park, Annville.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Grane Hospice Care, 4 Lemoyne Dr., Suite 201, Lemoyne, PA 17043.

“ Andy was always a happy and nice guy when I saw him. I'll always remember the trip Brylen, Andy, and myself took to Detroit for the Autorama years ago. We had so much fun and Andy made sure we stayed in line. Rest In Peace Andy....you are missed.
