“ Angie was a kind patient beautiful human. She and I met after orbiting each other for some time. I saw her on the commuter rail reading the same book as I was, in Boston walking to work, at the gym, shopping. She was hard to miss as her light shined so brightly. I asked her who she was as she laced up her sneakers at the gym one day and we were forever friends. We laughed, we talked gardens, we took long walks, we shared meals, wins and losses. My daughters adore her and remember her as a “free spirit and sweet soul”. I send my love and prayers. She will be with me always. This world will miss her light and peace dearly.

“ Angie is the brightest and kindest of souls.

Her radiance and creativity illuminated and enhanced the best aspects of and in everyone and everything that was fortunate enough to experience the joy and grace of her being.

She cherished and nurtured all life; and our lives grieve her passing from this one, yet know she continues on in the eternal One.

She came from the most luminous place: a space found in the heart of every star, and now she has returned to there, where she is shining on forever...

Because of you, Angela, the heavens glow ever stronger, as do we all.

Thank you!

My thoughts and feelings and prayers are with all of you, her wonderful and beloved family.

“ Angie lived across from us for many years and I will always remember her free spirit and love for simple beauty. I will remember all those nights sitting on my porch, watching Angie and my daughter painting together. I will always be thankful for the selflessness she showed and the love of art she instilled in my little girl on those nights. I will always remember her as a free spirit with a beautiful heart and am forever grateful I had the privilege of knowing her. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends!
