

Anita Getz Chapman

December 12, 1954 - January 3, 2009

Anita Getz Chapman, 54, of Annville passed away at her residence on Saturday, January 3, 2009. Daughter of Gene Shelley Getz and the late Pierce Allen Getz, she was born December 12, 1954, in Tokyo, Japan. She is survived by her loving husband, Randy, with whom she would have celebrated their 34th wedding anniversary on May 24, 2009. She is also survived by a brother, Joseph Allen Getz, wife, Virginia Leary Getz; and nephews Josh and Danny Getz of Harrisburg. A loving wife, daughter, sister and aunt, Nita will be remembered for her caring, compassion, generosity and service to others. As a member of the Annville United Methodist Church for over 40 years, she served the church as the AUMC representative to the LCCM and served as treasurer for its UMW. She was a 1972 graduate of Annville Cleona High School, and a 1976 graduate of Lebanon Valley College. She was employed by the Hershey Medical Center for over 10 years, Dental Arts of Hershey for 16 years and, most recently, by the Hershey Company's TelAssist department. She was a lifetime member of the National Corvette Museum, the PACE Miata Club, Skyline Drive Corvettes, and the Lebanon Area Corvette Club. A memorial service celebrating her life will be held Saturday, January 17, at 11 a.m. at her church at 1 North College Avenue, Annville. Her family will greet guests following the service. Interment will be held at the convenience of the family. Memorial contributions may be made in memory of Anita to the Annville United Methodist Church, or to Lebanon County Christian Ministries, 250 South Seventh Street, Lebanon, PA 17042. Kreamer Funeral Home and Crematory, Annville, is in charge of arrangements.
