

Anna B. Fahnestock

August 18, 1936 - January 11, 2025

Anna B. Fahnestock, 88, of Palmyra passed away on January 11, 2025 in Lebanon, PA. She was the loving wife of the late Duane A. Fahnestock. Born in New York City on August 18, 1936, Ann was the daughter of the late Vincent and Rose Sovar. She was a 1954 graduate of Lebanon High School and had retired after 30 years of service with the federal government. Ann enjoyed swimming and playing golf, and will always be remembered as a loving and cheerful mother, grandmother, and friend.

Surviving is her daughter, Sharon, wife of Steven Brown; two grandsons, Andrew, husband of Nicole Brown, and Daniel, husband of Amelia Brown; four great-grandchildren, Damien Thomas, Liam Brown, Hannah Brown and Connor Brown. She was predeceased in death by a great-granddaughter, Grace Brown; and two sisters, Helen Howard and Frances Snow.

Funeral arrangements will be private. Memorial donations may be made to any food bank.