

Anna Mae Deitzler

November 7, 1927 - November 18, 2017

Anna Mae Deitzler, 90, of Lebanon, passed away on Saturday November 18, 2017. She is survived by her loving and caring husband of 64 years, Harold Deitzler. Anna was born in Lebanon on November 7, 1927 to the late Harry and Lena (Royer) Hemperly.

Anna was a graduate of Lebanon High School. She had worked as a bank teller and a payroll clerk for Sears, Steitz Savings and Loan, and Northwest Savings Bank. She was a life-long member of Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church in Lebanon. Anna was a beloved wife and loving mother. She enjoyed dancing, ice skating, traveling and playing cards with friends, bicycling, baking and eating sweets, keeping her home and yard in tip-top shape, and listening to music, especially the opera Carmen. Growing up with four siblings on a farm, she developed a strong work ethic, an independent spirit, and was a tireless worker. She and Harold worked hard to provide opportunities for their children that she did not have in her childhood. Her legacy and life philosophies will live on in the hearts of those she inspired.

In addition to her devoted husband, she is survived by her daughters, Carol Eder, Diane and her husband Mark Dittenhafer; grandchildren, Kristin (Dittenhafer) and her husband Jeffrey Reed, Alison Eder, Craig Eder, and Steven Eder; her siblings, Leon Hemperly and Margarueite Light; and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by a grandson, Eric Dittenhafer, and her sisters, Marieda Ebersole and Arlene Lear.
