“ To the family I am so so sorry for your loss. She was such a kind special lady that led a full life. She always had time to sit and visit. I will always remember and treasure our talks and Me coming over to swim and buy a coke everyday and my fond memories of going to Vacation Bible School at your church. Until we meet again special lady. Hugs to all💕

She was always a delight to talk with, she was witty and fun to be around - comical at times too.
