

Anne M. Groh

November 10, 2013 - November 10, 2013

Anne Mae Groh, 88, of Elverson, PA went home to be with Jesus while a resident at Twin Oaks Nursing Center in Campbelltown, PA on Sunday, November 10, 2013. She was the wife of the late John Groh, Jr. Born and raised in Chicago, IL, she was the daughter of the late Ignatius MacDonald and Edna Klipp.

She was the mother of six children, a grandmother to twelve and a great-grandmother to thirteen. Two daughters, Carol Angelucci and Laurie Duncan and her granddaughter Danielle Duncan, preceded her in death. Her surviving children are Cathy Steffy, wife of Richard, Annville, PA; David Groh, husband of Gwyn, Elverson, PA; Linda Groh, Grantville, PA and Sherri Seachrist, wife of William, Holtwood, PA.

Anne was a gifted seamstress who operated her own alterations business for many years. She had also worked as a seamstress for Poser's in Lancaster, PA and at the front desk of the Holiday Inn in Morgantown, PA. Her family was the joy of her life, and she was always quick to brag about her children and grandchildren. She was proud of her Scottish heritage and enjoyed music, reading, baking apple pies and sewing for others.

A celebration of her life will be held on Friday, November 15 at Living Rock Bible Church, 2672 Ridge Rd., Elverson, PA at 3 p.m. Inurnment will be held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the church.
