“ I remember one time we were out eating dinner and I asked Arland a question and he did not respond at first. Amy told me he can not hear me and answered for Arland. That’s when he leaned over and said loud enough for everyone to here; “they think I can’t hear so don’t blow my cover.”.

We would sit for hours in the basement and chat in a Normal voice. He had them fooled well before he actually lost most of his hearing.
