“ I just ran across this and I'm sorry I missed her passing. To me, she was "Mee Maw", the constant leader I knew I could count on at the Lebanon Church of God. She prayed for all of us as teenagers, and I truly believe she is one of the reasons I am where I am today, still saved and working in church. She was a wonderful, sweet, Godly woman. All who knew her were blessed. I will miss her hugs, even though it's been a number of years since I saw her. Prayers to you family.

“ I believe what I will remember most about Arlene is her smile, her vibrant smile. I will also remember how she loved to share her faith. I didn't know Arlene very long, but one would believe we had known each other for years, she was so welcoming, and Arlene was so caring as well. She will be missed by many. My condolences to her family.

I only met Arlene in this last year of her life and she was an inspiration for me to become more involved with a Bible Study group she was heading. She was a very gentle giving soul with God in her heart and love for her friends and family. She will live on through the people she knew. Sleep in peace my friend. Sandy
