After graduating from Temple University, she worked for three years for the West Virginia Department of Education as Director of

Teacher Certification. She often talked about how much she liked working for the state department in West Virginia. Audrey's main interests were education, reading, involvement in church and loving her children and grandchildren. She loved traveling with her husband and wintered in New Mexico and South Carolina where her daughter, Debra lives. Audrey is survived by her husband William, at home; daughters, Debbie Gee, of Columbia, S.C., Robin Wade, of Lenexa, KS and Jennifer Evans of Richland, PA; sons Randall Dawson of San Antonio, TX, Karl Sprenger of Indiana, PA and Kurt Sprenger of Fishersville, VA; two brothers Arnold Gray of Prescott, AZ and a younger brother, Thomas Bayless in Parsons, KS; and 14 grandchildren all of who will miss her loving presence. “ For friends & family of Audrey's: “œYou can shed tears that she is gone, or you can smile because she has lived. You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all she's left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of the love you shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember her only that she is gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back. Or you can do what she'd want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.œ
