“ She was my safe haven, someone who taught me the true meaning of patience and understanding. I cherished every moment spent together, whether we were laughing, talking, or simply enjoying each other's company. Even when we didn't always see eye to eye, she never judged or became upset. Instead, she embraced me with unconditional love. Like her I have an endless sweet tooth, so I wasn't a good influence when it came to her sugars. I would always encourage her to buy her favorite dark chocolate Dutch cake and to take an extra bite simply because it would make her happy. We would order in and rent a Redbox movie on our lunch dates. Sometimes the movies would be corny and we would laugh at the bad acting. On every occasion she would mail me a card from birthdays to anniversary's even on holidays and I saved most of them. With Nan it was always the little things. From Disney movies, to fuzzy socks, and to my collection of oversized McDonald's t-shirts everytime there was a new promotion. I have two kids, one boy, one girl. My son is named Kenai , which comes from the one of my favorite Disney movies brother bear & my daughter, Amiyah Ann shares my grandmothers middle name to show her how much she means to me and just how much she has impacted my life. She was the light to my gloomy days, a book to my rainy days, the hot cup of tea on my sick days. She is my love for the color green. She is the keeper of the little girl inside me. I love her more than she could possibly imagine. Her memories are the ones I'll always remember, because with her I was always happy. I'll miss her. Sending love X&O's - Kai

“ My Nanny was the sweetest little person. I got to spend a wonderful 33 years with her. She has been at every important event in my life and I am so glad to be able to cherish those memories. My children loved their Gigi so much and loved when she came over to the house. She was at every single one of their birthday parties and no matter who it was she always sent them a birthday card in the mail. She was so precise that it always came on the day of your actual birthday. She did the same with anniversaries and Christmas cards. She is definitely missed by so many and she will always be missed and very much loved. I love you so much Nanny, see you one day again!
