

Barbara Ann Myer

September 2, 2019

Barbara Ann Myer, 79, of Lancaster, PA passed away at her home on September 2, 2019 at 10:29 PM. Born in Annville, she was the daughter of the late Harold Becker and Mildred Hicks. She was the widow of Donald Fisher, and had been previously married to Kenneth Watson, and Clair Myer.

She was a member of Salem United Methodist Church where she developed a love for music from childhood through adulthood. Singing in the church choir led to her dream of having her own group, The Joyful Sounds. Some of their highlights included performing at venues in Wildwood, NJ, along with several performances at The White House.

In addition, she enjoyed selling a clothing-and-accessory line at local marketplaces, that benefitted third world countries.

She is survived by sons, Kenneth J. Watson, Stephen D. Watson, and daughter Barbara M. Sherman, granddaughter, Michelle (Jarred) Roark; great grandchildren, Charlotte R. Eichman, Victoria O. Sherman, Jaclyn N. Roark, and Madeline P. Roark; and close friend Tomio Garray. She is predeceased by grandson Aaron Sherman.

A celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, September 7th at Kreamer Funeral Home and Crematory Inc., 618 E. Main Street, Annville, PA. The viewing will be held from 10AM until 11AM, immediately followed by the service at 11AM. Interment will be private, at the convenience of the family.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Hospice and Community Care, 685 Good Drive, PO Box 4125, Lancaster, PA 17604 or The American Cancer Society, Rt 422 and Sipe Ave, Hershey, PA 17033.

“ It has been very difficult to comprehend what has happened. Was not prepared for the shock and short time we had to digest the scope and magnitude of what became final days of your life. I will always be saddened we did not have more quality time to spend together as I wish we could have. Thought you would be in our lives for many more years to share. Will miss you and rest in peace. Love Steve
