“ I am so sad to learn of Ben's passing. My condolences and prayers to all his family and friends. Ben and I went to the same church when I was young. After being an altar server, I was asked to be a sacristan. Ben mentored me. I remember his faith, kindness, dedication, and subdued but delightful sense of humor. Most of all I remember that whenever he would ascend the sanctuary to prepare things for the Mass, he would genuflect to the tabernacle. Every. Single. Time. I never saw such constant devotion to the Eucharist in someone who was just a few years older than I was – and I was probably an 8th grader at the time! Ben's witness of faith was one of several that helped me know Jesus Christ and eventually become a Catholic priest.
