“ I Will always remember going with Beth-elle's family to the aquarium in Baltimore MD. She was 4 or 5 years old. Beth-elle got sick and threw up during the show. As we prepared to go to the first aid station she wanted me to carry her. She would not let go of me until some time later. She was the sweetest, cutest little girl and in her time of suffering she wanted me to comfort her. Now she is having every tear wiped away and is being comforted JESUS. See you when my time comes Beth-elle!🙏♂

How difficult to say goodbye to such a young person. Beth-elle was a part of our lives all her growing up years. My heart doesn't want to acknowledge her absence in her family and all who loved her. May God's grace and strength flow through John and Cathy and all her siblings,
