I met Betty years ago when my parents George and Shirley Tice took my sister Vicki and I to visit them and their children. I remember Karen whom they affectionately called Kay Kay. We were very sad to read of Betty's passing. May your memories be solace for your grief in the days ahead. Rest in Peace Betty. Fly high with the angels.

“ A kind and gracious woman of God, always ready to entertain and feed Ken’s hungry buddies at the beautiful family farm/homestead outside of Annville. A blessing from the Lord to get to know Ken, Betty and several of their children.
