

Betty J. Brightbill

October 2, 1928 - March 2, 2017

Betty J. Brightbill, 88, of South Lebanon Township, passed away on Thursday, March 2, 2017, while holding hands with Richard, her loving husband of over 66 years, ending her courageous battle with cancer. She was born on October 2, 1928, in Schaefferstown, daughter of the late Frank Walters and Dorothy Immel. In her early childhood she was a foster child to Luther and Gladys Johns and later to Minor and Anna Lineaweaver.

In her young adult life, she was a caregiver and housekeeper to new mothers and later worked with her husband at Bombergers Bologna, retiring in 1990. She was a member of Midway Church and the Character Builders class.

Betty had a sweet spirit and a joy for living that was evident to all who knew her. Her servant heart was a blessing to her husband and her extended family. She enjoyed many good times with the Forney family, nurturing Marie, Glenn and Deb, as well as the next generations, who will all miss the love and laughter that she shared.

In addition to her husband, Richard, she is survived by sisters-in-law, Alice Boyles and Mary Lineaweaver and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by sister, Emily VanDyke, brother William Boyles and foster brothers, Warren and J.D. Lineaweaver.

Funeral services will be held on Monday at 11:00 AM at the Kreamer Funeral Home and Crematory, 618 E. Main Street, Annville. Interment will be in Grand View Memorial Park. Viewing will be held on Monday from 10-11 AM prior to the service.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in Betty's memory to Midway Church, 13 Evergreen Road, Lebanon, or to the American Cancer Society would be appreciated.

“ I have fond memories of Aunt Betty. She had a good kind heart, always happy and had a joyful laugh that could fill a room. of all the happy times we shared on visits with my family to Lebanon I especially remember a time when Uncle Richard and Aunt Betty took my brother Marty and I to Rehobeth Beach for a few days. I remember clamming in Dewey Bay. Fun times. I am out of town today and am unable to make the services. On behalf of the Brightbill's of Harrisburg, we extend our deepest sympathies to Uncle Richard, Aunt Betty's family, and the Forney family at the loss of dear loved one. Regards, Bill Brightbill
