“ Uncle Stan, Uncle Larry and now you...my uncles, a tough crew, loving, hard working men. I've been in shock over you leaving, I wasn't ready, and so soon after uncle Larry. What I remember the most about you is your love for family, the ties all 11 of your siblings have is remarkable with each other. I will forever miss the laughter and fun we all shared and it was my honor to have known you for the 62 years of my life. You're in heaven with gram and pap, uncle Larry and my mom. I bet you're all laughing and hugging. Til we meet again uncle Blair, I love you and I'll miss you but I'll keep my great memories tight in my heart.
