“ Yes, I dad do something fun. I went simiwmg at Wet n'Wild water park and talked to you while I was on the way with a bunch of kids in the back of the pickup with Abby, who went with me too. I did a pretty good job with the backstroke. I think the kids are about to beat me at simiwmg, so I hope I can hold up a little longer. I remember I didn't do such a good job when Darla was at Ft. Coob Lake, but an old indian helped us out, and I gave hime all the watermelons I had. I'm still growing tomatoes, green beans, squash and cucumbers. I hope I don't have to reward anybody with melones (cantaloupes) or sandias (watermelons), because they don't grow too good in El Paso, although I trying my luck again at pumpkins. Anyway, thanks for the memories, son, but remember; mine's the 10th, and your's is the (seven)teenth. Love always, Dad.

“ To all the lives touched by Aunt Blanche, especially her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, What a legacy this beautiful woman leaves for us all. She loved her family, she loved her dearest friend and husband, she loved the church and Christ who died for it and she had a way of loving everyone she met along the way. What a blessing to have had her as an my Aunt. And now she rests with her Lord and Savior as He tells her, "Well done, my faithful servant." Love to you all.
