“ Good ole one eyed Brad. Brad was a friend to me and all our friends growing up. I remember playing football in his parents yard. Something we would always do, after he played his quit at , naturally!
We drifted apart some after high school, but whenever we'd run into each other we'd catch up and it would be like we hadn't been apart long. I will miss ole one eye, with fond memories of much, including the shore!
