“ My sincere condolences to the Stocker family. I met Brad through Lebanon Community Theatre. If he wasn't busy in the ticket booth, he always had time for a chat. What a nice man. I'm sure everyone at the theater will miss him--I know I will.

“ *Brad was a fantastic, inspired teacher, a great director with his musicals, marvelous at teaching any subject, he was a dog lover, a great conversationalist, and the man who was passionate for Wildwood, NJ and my first boyfriend. We were together for five years and I have never laughed like that with anyone. He loved his family in Philipsburg, he dearly loved his late wife, Laura . I married a wonderful man, too. All of us were happy until emergency struck and we both lost our spouses to cancer. I am so sorry that we won't be home for the service. If we can, we will rush home. Say a prayer from me.
