

Brandon Lee Hetrick

October 23, 2016 - October 23, 2016

Brandon Lee Hetrick, 38, of Palmyra died Sunday, October 23, 2016 in his residence after a long battle with Olivopontocerebellar Atrophy. Born in Lebanon on November 5, 1977, he was the son of Ricky L. Long of Annville and the late Kim Hetrick. He was formerly employed as a cashier at Giant Foods, Cleona and also worked at ASK Foods, Palmyra and various fast food restaurants in the area. Brandon attended Annville-Cleona and Palmyra High Schools and Zion Evangelical Congregational Church, Annville. As a youth, he participated in baseball and wrestling and had fond memories of his grandparents Harold and Stella Long especially on their vacations to Wildwood, NJ. He was an avid reader of the newspaper and non-fiction books, watching all sports on TV, listening to 80's rock music, and enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He is survived in addition to his father by two sisters Angela Hetrick of Lebanon and Kasha Herbe of Harrisburg. Brandon was preceded in death by grandparents Dale Hetrick, Sr. and Marilyn Long. Memorial services will be held on Saturday at 10:00 AM at the Kreamer Funeral Home and Crematory, 618 E. Main Street, Annville. Interment will be held at the convenience of the family. Contributions may be made to Zion E.C. Church, 710 S. White Oak Street, Annville, PA 17003 in his memory.

“ I went to school with Brandon- I smile and chuckle when I think back to the memories of him. He was always smiling, always seemed to have something up his sleeve :), and made even the most boring classes entertaining. My thoughts and prayers are with all who hold Brandon close in their hearts. He blessed the earth with his presence, and was the reason behind thousands upon thousands of smiles from those he was around. My thoughts are with you...
