“ Grieving with you, Lisa, and praying for everyone impacted by this terrible loss. I only got to meet Bri once and briefly, but her beautiful spirit and bubbly personality was so immediately evident. The ripple effect of her life was huge, no doubt. I'm saddened to see it cut so tragically short but encouraged by what I saw in today's funeral service.

“ The Studley family got to know and love Brianna at the age of 9 when we lived on the same street. Such a bubbly and beautiful spirit. Our last visit from her was this last Christmas when she brought us a box of chocolate chip cookies from a famous New York City bakery.. of course the back story was that she had to pack them in her suitcase. Needless to say, they arrived with her crushed. Brianna was right....they were still delicious. We will always be there for Lisa, Brian and Mickey to always cherish the stories that remind us of what it meant to know and love a life that was too short.

“ I truly only know you from those who love you most. I only got to spend a few short hours with you Brianna, but in that time I could see that you were a young lady with definite opinions of how things should be done, and a softness for all mankind. I can only pray that you will watch over your loved ones with that same fierceness. Rest now sweet spirit in the arms of the angels.
