

Carl E. Fake

July 15, 1928 - December 31, 2019

Carl E. Fake, 91, of Annville, passed away peacefully after a lengthy illness on Tuesday, December 31, 2019, at his home. He was the husband of Ethel A. "Tootie" Kreider Fake. On May 22nd, they celebrated their 34th wedding anniversary.

Born in Cornwall on July 15, 1928, he was the son of the late John H. and Catherine Chernich Fake. Carl grew up in Miners Village and graduated from the Cornwall School. He was proud to have been employed by Bethlehem Steel and worked in the Cornwall Ore Mines for 23 years. He then transferred to Millard's Quarry after the '72 flood and was there until he retired. He was the pinochle king and would play with anybody. He enjoyed the jumbles in the paper, the Phillies and going to the casino. He loved to put out a vegetable garden and plant fruit trees, and he shared the produce with his children and friends. He was an avid hunter and jack of all trades. He repaired watches, clocks, TVs and appliances. He was a self-taught mechanic, carpenter, plumber and electrician. His family and friends were everything to him. He was a loving and forgiving man and a man of deep faith. He saw good in everyone, and he loved to talk to people no matter where he was. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends, and he will never be forgotten.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his son Joseph E. and his wife Mary Fake of Lebanon; daughters Mary C. wife of Robert Hoberg of Jonestown, Betty J. Kindt of Annville and Tina M. wife of Kenneth Heisey of Jonestown; step-sons Glenn Wolfe of Atlanta, GA and Greg Wolfe of Annville; brother
