

Carlton B. Geesaman

June 28, 1953 - March 13, 2015

Carlton B. Geesaman, Sr., 61, of Jonestown, passed away on Friday, March 13, 2015 with his loving family by his side. He is survived by his wife Dolores I. Geesaman with whom he was married for 41 years. He is also survived by his son, Carlton B. Geesaman, Jr., daughter Amanda R. Geesaman, grandchildren Gavin and Harlowe, brothers A. Richard Geesaman, Jr. and Jeffrey Geesaman and an incredible extended family.

Born in Lansdale on June 28, 1953, he was the son of the late A. Richard and Kathryn Bell Geesaman. He was preceded in death by his beloved sister Beverly.

Carlton loved spending time with his family and was an avid outdoorsman. He had a beautiful, enormous heart, tremendous strength of spirit and an absolute zest for life. He touched the hearts of everyone around him with his wide, welcoming smile and goofy wit. He lived life to the very fullest, facing many obstacles along the way, yet teaching his children what being brave was all about.

A builder by trade, Carlton started his own business in his early twenties. His son started joining him on the job at the age of 3 and continues to run the family business.

He was a member of the Moonshine United Zion Church, the 666 Brownstone Masonic Lodge, a life member of the Tall Cedars of Lebanon and a member of the Harrisburg Consistory and Shrine.

A Celebration of Life service will be held on Saturday, March 21, 2015 at 11:00am at the Keystone Conference Center, Bldg 17-104, Essayons Road, Fort Indiantown Gap, Annville, PA 17003. A visitation with the family will follow the service.

He fought courageously in his battle with brain cancer and showed immense grace and bravery in his ultimate victory. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Ronald McDonald House, 745 W. Governor Rd., Hershey, PA 17033.

www.kreamerlumfh.com