“ I am sorry to read this. Carol was a wonderful, wonderful person. I had the great pleasure of working with her for almost twenty years at Farmers Pride and she was a hard working, dedicated co-worker. We worked closely together and I fondly remember her smile and laugh. May she truly rest in peace with the Lord.

“ Cindy & Gary, Mary & I were very sorry to read about the passing of Carol. It has been a number of years since we were neighbors on Main Street but we remember the three of you very fondly. We know the loss as we lost our Amy almost two years ago at age 49. Mary also lost her twin and a brother. Carol is now at the side of your parents. Your tribute was beautiful.
