

Carol J. Butler

June 17, 1952 - April 28, 2026

Carol J. (DeMark) Butler, age 73, of Myerstown, PA, formerly of Pittsburgh, PA passed away peacefully after a long illness on Tuesday, April 28, 2026. She was born on June 17, 1952, in Pittsburgh, PA. She was the daughter of the late Carl and Rose DeMark. She is survived by her loving husband of 43 years James J. Butler Jr. They would have celebrated their 44th anniversary on May 8th. Also surviving is her stepson James W. Butler and wife Christine; Sister Kathy Daubert (Dennis) Lebanon, PA, Wayne DeMark (Sue) Smithfield, NC, William DeMark (Missy) Pittsburgh, PA and several nephews and nieces. Carol was employed as a Senior Meat Buyer at Associated Wholesalers Incorporated in Robesonia for over 25 years. Growing up Carol was a lover of dogs, and then her conviction turned to horses. She had several horses while living in Pittsburgh. Her attachment so great, she brought several of them with her when her and Jim moved to the Lebanon, PA area.

Her greatest and proudest moment was when she and Jim purchased a farm in Myerstown. At that point her dreams of owning a farm and bringing her four-legged girls home had been fulfilled. She enjoyed the little things, only asking to spend her life with Jim and her horses.

Private services or a Celebration of Life are at the discretion of the family. Inurnment will be at the Indiantown Gap National Cemetery. If people feel the need to help others in Carol's name, please donate to the Lebanon Humane Society Thrift Shop, 129 Cumberland St., Lebanon, PA 17042 or the Tunnel to Towers Foundation, <https://t2t.org/> to help our veterans.

“ Carol was a very Loving and caring person and sincere friend and loved her family and animals in the highest degree of her life. She will be sadly missed by the many that knew her. My wife who passed away in 2010 befriended Carol and together they were examples of their strong friendship and love of their animals. She will be sadly missed by all of us that knew her. God Bless You Carol and your entire Family for Life Everlasting Under God. Very Sincerely Bruce and Deborah Smith.
