“ Grandma. A part of my soul died with you, the worst day of my life. I was just with you a week prior and you told corey and I that you're strong and healing and this is going to be a great year. I will forever hate 2023 for taking my beautiful amazing kind sweet accepting grandmother. My favorite memory with you was when I was going through a really rough time where depression just took all motivation from me and you told me to get up and let's clean this room and have coffee and grilled cheese at your house. That's when we watched tiger king every night for a week. And you thought it was a parody show when it was real and we lost it watching that show. I'm so grateful with how close we got grandma. We have had many good memories and some ones I wouldn't mind if they didn't happen lol. Like the time you and pappy caught my friend leaving the house and it was a boy and the next day you scolded me. Haha. I was like oh man I'm busted. I felt like a teenager or when you caught ange hopping out the window. Omg we both got yelled at for that. You were like my second mom. And I'll always be thankful that we had the relationship that we did. And still do. I saw the feather you sent me. Thank you I needed that. I have it in my wallet. Forever. You're my best friend and my mentor. Thank you for all the advice and trying to teach me how to cook. I'm going to make you proud grandma. I love you so much Thank you for never giving up on me and always defending me and being there for me. My hearts breaking without you but I'll do good things in honor of you. Just please give me signs that you're there watching over me and the boys and the rest of the family. Corey and I and Johnny and Matty love you so much.

“ I am so sorry I didn't know you, but I work with Angela Davis. You were so loved, admired, respected and appreciated by your children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. You were blessed with an abundance of love and you generously returned that love. That's as good as it gets in Life. - Tammy
