“ I want to thank everyone who sent cards, flowers, prayers and their love. I start to cry every time I think of her and that's all the time. I have never felt such emptiness. My heart is broken and will be forever.

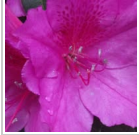

*This hurts so bad I can hardly stand it.
I love you forever, your husband.

“ *Cathy and I have been friends for many years. I remember sipping her mother's wine that was fermenting in the basement. We had to be careful not to stir the sediment or drink too much. We told each other secrets which I will never reveal. We grew up, married, had children and eventually did not see each other that often. A few years ago, a group of childhood friends started meeting once a month. It was wonderful seeing and talking to her again. I should have told her more often that I loved her. She was a great friend and I will miss her. Rest in peace, Cathy.
My condolences to Henry and the entire family.
Sincerely, Cherie*
