“ We will always remember Charlie for all the kindness he shared with our "Mom/Oma" and our Sister/Aunt Stell (who was Oma's caregiver). Charlie would always stop by to visit Oma and brighten her day. Oma would always enjoy his caring, kindness, and jovial spirit. Charlie knew everyone in our family and took a genuine interest to always asks how everyone was doing. Thank you for everything you did for our Oma and Aunt. We will miss you. The world needs more "Charlies".
God Bless Charlie and his family.

“ Bale family continued..... From one animal lover to another ,we could not forget to share Charlie's love of animals. They say to love many animals a person's heart is very large. Charlie and sherry made a loving home to I think it was over 30 goats. These goats all had a name and came running when called. We have many pictures of our children when little holding these kids (baby goats) of there's and that was awhile back now .Charlie and sherry had chickens galore and at least one dog for as long as we knew them .Charlie and sherry both loved the Lebanon fair, and were a big part of that for many years Charlie and sherry we would like to say" thank you' for making your home a place to just drop by and say 'hello' to catch up, or just hang out and enjoy the animals wich they were happy to share with all those that loved them too. Charlie and sherry made a great 'team' and we are forever grateful for all the great memories of what you both provided.

“ Charlie was a great neighbor and friend who was referred to as 'the Mayor of Cardinal lane'.as he was attentive to the needs of all who lived on the lane, and was willing to help out and keep everyone happy. Charlie was a great gardener and as anyone on the lane knew, he took great pleasure in sharing what he grew and was my go to guy for gardening questions wich he so enthusiastically offered that recourse. Charlie had this large personality and contagious laugh that was all his own. Bill and I will miss calling him up for some great conversation on the who's who and current events in the neighborhood.. Charlie and Sheery's Memorial day picnic's were so much fun and grew and grew over the years to be very large. Charlie's homeade beans and burgers and black joe cake were on the list of favorites and I remember charlie saying often 'if you leave hungary it's your own fault'. Those picnics sadly came to a halt when charlie just could no longer have them. Charlie and sheery's wedding day was a very intensely hot day and they got married in there back yard. We will always have those great memeories to go back in time to visit. Charlie's love of people and zest for life we will carry with us for sure. Charlie was a top notch kind of guy friend and neighbor that was allot of fun and will be missed by us more than words can convey.

"thanks Charlie for the 'good times', We miss you, and carry your greatness with us always.
