

Charles W. "Skip" McMinn, Jr.

August 25, 1938 - June 18, 2024

Charles W. "Skip" McMinn, Jr., 85, of Lebanon passed away on Tuesday June 18, 2024, surrounded by family. He was the husband of Barbara A. (Bender) McMinn with whom he celebrated 61 years in marriage.

Skip was born in Lebanon on August 25, 1938 to the late Charles W. "Charlie" McMinn and Dorothy "Dot" (Slyke) McMinn. He had been a welder at Buel Engineering. He was a volunteer at the Independent Fire Company, a lifelong Dodgers and Ford Nascar fan. He enjoyed being at Tuckahoe Acres in Dagsboro, Delaware. While he was there, he would enjoy boating, fishing, and golf cart rides with his granddaughter.

Surviving in addition to his wife are his children Chuck McMinn (Shannon) of Jonestown, Lori McMinn of Lebanon, Amy Lingle (Jeremy) of Middletown, his granddaughter, Keri Ann Lingle, who affectionately loved her P-Pop, and his sisters, Dottie Trainor of Palmyra, and Faye Frantz of Greer, SC. He was preceded in death by his brother Floyd McMinn.

Services are held privately.

“ Skip was a great guy. I have many fond memories growing up with Lori and joking around with Skip. Also a lot of good memories at Tuckahoe Acres and going out boating. Always a good time. My deepest sympathies to his family whom I know will miss him dearly.
