“ Charlotte was my close and best friend in high school. She was always there for me during good and hard times. Chuck and I introduced Jim and Charlotte on a blind date. Neither one expected much out of the evening, but within a short time they were elbow to elbow and have been that close over 30 years. We love you Jim and know where Charlotte is today. In the living, caring hands of our Saviour Jesus Christ. We pray for God's peace around you and your family Jim, during this time.

“ I was very saddened to hear of a dear high-school friends passing today. I met Charlotte back in owings mills high in the mid eighties. Cindy Mc kinney herself and I were friends thru thick and thin. She was the more logical of the three but thats what made her so special. Her smile and that laugh would light up your day, and she was always a true friend!! I haven't seen her in years but was aware of what a great life her and Jim have made for thierselves in Pa with their children and grandchildren. I know whoevers lives she touched in all these years were truly blessed as I was so many years ago. May she rest in peace with our lord and savior.

“ The Janowitz family is very special to us. As neighbors for a while and forever dear friends of the heart. We spent time together at ball fields (kids and dads), patio meals, the beach and supporting each other in this life. Char is forever a cherished friend, connecting us in grounded kindred spirit. Her gentleness, comforting smile and unconditional love for all those around her. She was surely a Proverbs 31 women! I even make my chicken and dumplings the way she taught me!

Our lives took us from being neighbors to different parts of the country, but we never failed to hold this family in high regard in our hearts. Our prayers continue over each of you in the days ahead,... our loss is heavens gain. Her memory will continue to live here until we meet her again at the feet of Jesus! We love you all xoxo - The Sell Family (Keller, Texas)

“ I truly enjoyed getting to know Charlotte during the women's bible study she participated in several years ago while she and Jim attended Covenant OPC. During the brief time I knew her she blessed me as well as the other women in the group with her delightful and insightful input. She has been in my prayers since we heard of her diagnosis. I am thankful that we can grieve with hope, knowing that she is in the arms of Jesus now.

“ Char-Char as I lovingly called her was a dear friend. Even though we haven't spoken or seen each other in years the friendship that we had was a gift. She truly was a gem and a wonderful person. Our friendship was a blessing as are the memories. She was my sister friend. Jim, Danny, Jesse, Jerry, Trish, and your entire family are in my prayers for comfort and peace. I will miss you but I also know God's got you in his hands. Until we meet again sweet Char-Char. Love, Angie Perez, Kyle, Nick and Tim Brown

“ Charlotte was beautiful inside and out. I will miss our banter over our views on life, that smile, laugh when I say something she is thinking but would never say, her cookies, stories about her life and her beautiful family. May you find happiness in this time knowing what a gem she was and the life's she made a little brighter knowing her.
