“ We were neighbors at Long's Apartments in Bellgrove back in the early 80s and our kids played and grew up together. Teenie and Clark were awesome neighbors and parents. I'll never forget when she brought Auggie home. So very sad and tragic when they lost him. But now she is in heaven with Clark, Auggie and her dad "Henner" (used to deliver Coke to my Mom's grocery store at the Gap). Rest in Peace Teenie. Sympathies to Luke and the rest of the surviving family. My condolences!

“ I don't even know where to begin. My heart aches for her family. We go way back. We were neighbors when we lived in Bellegrove. We shared so many good times, whether we were crafting, camping, cooking, fishing, playing games, etc. I have this mental picture of Teenie in heaven, holding Auggie and never letting go. Teenie, I love you now and forever. God bless, Luke and Heather and her family. Till we meet again.
