I feel such a great sadness and heartache over the loss of Chris. You were my neighbor and friend and were always willing to help me and my wife Nicole your "Sis" do anything anytime. These past snows you did it all for us with your shoveling and snowblower . I think he really liked that thing. It was nice to come home to . I wish our friendship could have grown more with the times spent on the porch and in the yard and going out to eat or getting ice cream and walking our dogs. Just know we will always keep you in our thoughts and hearts. To the family , know that Chris was an awesome guy to be around my heart goes out each of you. I never said it enough to you . Thanks Chris.

“ Christopher, you were like a little brother. You called me "sis". I really enjoyed having you as my neighbor. My heart broke hearing of your passing knowing we won't get to hang on the porch, do yard work, clear out the snow and exchanging our favorite coffee k-cups, you were quite the coffee drinker. I hope your at peace now and know I will never forget you bud!!! Condolences to all of the Kettering family during this difficult time. Until we meet again, your "sis" Nicole!

“ Pam,
I am so sorry for your loss. Words cannot begin to heal your sorrow; but as we both have been down many roads with our boys, I look back at a comment that got me through some very tough times, "God only gave him to you to borrow, one day you have to give him back". I know times were tough too many times, but you made it through, and with the love of your friends and family, you will again.
Be strong my friend, I miss you and I love you.
Sincerely,
Melody Kohr
