“ Dear Bethany, I am so very sorry to learn of Clinton's passing. My deepest sympathies go out to you and his family. I use to babysit him and his sisters when they were little. I would like to also extend my sympathies to his mother, Noreen, but I can't find her address or phone number. Would you please pass my number onto her, (717) 669-2783. My parents (Terry & Bonnie Heldibridle) would also like to extend there deepest sympathies to you and his family. They were friends with Noreen and Randy when they lived in Manheim.
Sincerely, Teresa Brown (Heldibridle)

“ Dear Bethany, My deepest condolences on your loss. It doesn't seem too long ago that Clint was still at Donsco working for me in the CMM. I am sure he was a wonderful father and loving husband. If there is anything I can do to help please let me know. Marianne Altland
