“ Dear Mary, It's been several days now and your loss is just starting to set in. Been there and know the numbness. You were so strong at the service I know you'll be okay. Time, Mary People would say that to me and I could have pasted them in the nose. However, I'm still here and you will be also. Love, Donna (group)

“ Kay, I am so very sorry for the loss of your son. My heart aches for you. I can't even imagine the grief you are feeling at this point, but pray in time your heavy heart will heal.
Concentrate on the loving memories you have of your son's childhood to his adult years.
I will be saying a prayer for you my former neighbor and friend.
