“ Whenever I see a bald eagle, the Phillies logo or the American Flag, I think of Craig. He loved to dance and sing. He was so much fun to be around. He will be greatly missed. I still can't believe he's gone.

“ Craigie, Craigie, Craigie! To this day I don't know if he ever called me by my real name. I was his Schweetheart! When I would get to the house Grammy would say "Chelsea's here" and Craig would always respond with "oh Schweetheart!" And come out of his room. Craig was one of my best friends growing up! In the pool at Grammy and Pappy's house, he used to throw the diving sticks to the deep end, I'd go get them, and throw them back to him for hours and hours! We used to play school at the beach house with a deck a playing cards and I would quiz him on his numbers then we would sit at the kitchen table and color for what seemed like forever! When we had a family dinner Craig would be the one to always say grace for us (but the best time was at Mackenzie's wedding). No matter what sporting event we were at or watching on TV, Craig was ready to sing the star spangled banner. Every Sunday he would drag his Jeff Gordon shrine to the living room to watch the race. It was the little things in life that made him the happiest! BUT don't touch his hat! Craig loved many things, but most of all he loved his family, Jeff Gordon, and the Phillies. Craig lived his life to the fullest and loved every moment of it! I love you Craig! (And I can hear you say back "I like you too")- Schweetheart & Emmmalee

“ Sorry for the loss of Craig. I remember Craig growing up when I would visit my grandma and grandpa just across the creek to the Mohn house. Trust the family has peace through Him.

“ We knew Craig for a long time. We met him through Special Olympics. He was a friend to our son Johnny. Craig always was smiling. We are going to miss him. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Craig was one of the first athletes I met when I started coaching volleyball with Special Olympics. Always remember him saying "I got it" with a big smile on his face, he always had a smile for you!

“ If you never met Craigie, what a loss! Craigie was the most competitive, happiest, stubborn person I've ever known, but I love him with all my heart. You didn't mess with his food, didn't talk bad about the Phillies or Jeff Gordon, those were the most sacred possessions Craigie owned! I took him to meet Jeff Gordon one time, thought he was going to have a heart attack....but he shook his hand and said "I like you Jeff Gordon"he giggled all the way home, great memory. Take him to church, he'd sing the loudest, you knew Craigie was in the building. Give him an American Flag and he'd swing it till his arm hurt. Sit in a chair too long and you'd get a "haircut".... Craigie style that is. He'll always be my buddy....rest in peace Craigie, Craigie, Craigie.....love you forever, your "sister" Jenny, Jenny, Jenny.
