

Craig D. Yingst

August 18, 1961 - July 14, 2018

Craig D. Yingst, 56, of Jonestown, went home to heaven on Saturday, July 14, 2018. He was the husband, best friend and lover of Patti A. Helsel Yingst. On October 8th, they would have celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary. Born in Lebanon on August 18, 1961, he was the son of the late Ronald and Mary Ebersole Yingst. Craig worked as a machinist at the former Ono Industries and also for Kercher Machine Works, Inc. in Lebanon. He was a member of the Jonestown Fish and Game Club. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, going upstate, riding his Harley and especially spending time with his family. In addition to his wife, he is survived by his son James D. Yingst and his fiancé Keysha Mercado of Jonestown; sisters Jan wife of Mike Rhen of Fredericksburg, Kelley Yingst of Lebanon, Terry wife of Roy Lefever of Jonestown and Ronda Yingst and her companion Charlie Vonada of Lebanon; grandchildren Romeo, Mallori and Sidney; and several nieces and nephews. A memorial service will be held on Thursday, July 19, 2018, at 7 p.m. at the Creamer & Lum Funeral Home & Crematory, Rt. 72 & Camp Meeting Rd., Jonestown. There will be no viewing, but a visitation will be held beginning at 5 p.m. until the start of the service. To honor Craig's wishes, the family requests that casual clothing be worn for his service. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Four Diamonds Fund, 90 Hope Drive #1103, Hershey, PA 17033.

Craig was always smiling. Enjoyed working with him so many years ago. So sorry for your loss.

“ I see that Craig still has that sweet smile and caring eyes. His gentle laugh was encouraging to me throughout high school when sometimes kindness is hard to find. God Bless you all as you say farewell. - Jane B
