July 31, 1953 - January 3, 2022

Curtis D. Winters, 68, of Elkins Park, passed away on Monday January 3, 2022 at Jefferson Abington Hospital. He was the husband of Kay L. (Kaylor) Winters, with whom he celebrated 48 years in marriage.

Family was of utmost importance to Curt and he leaves behind a legacy of loving and serving the Lord, enjoying good times together, and lots of laughter.

“ There aren't any people on this planet that I appreciate, love, respect and admire as much as Curt. I was blessed beyond measure to see him daily for 23 years and stay close since his retirement. He was an equal part blend of friend, boss, brother and father. That's virtually impossible. But yet he was. I still can't believe it. I'm holding on to the countless memories we made over the years and I'm forever grateful I was able to share such a significant part of my life with him.

“ While I won't be able to do this man the justice he deserves, I will say that Curt Winters was one of the most kind, selfless individuals I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. Over the years he always was a joy to be around, genuinely caring for others and making them feel welcome. My deepest sympathies to the entire Winters family for having been dealt yet another terrible loss. He was a wonderful person who will be deeply missed.

Curt was a true servant of Jesus. He was faithful and kind, and he will be deeply missed. He was devout and had his eyes on his Lord and Savior every day of his life. He was Jesus' hands and feet on the earth, serving and discipling others for the heavenly kingdom. We will miss you!

I just remember growing up as a teenager and new Christian that I wanted to pattern my life after Curt and Kay, who were a Godly example on how to live a life serving Jesus. I'am so blessed to have known him.
