

Curvin L. Martin

July 12, 2005 - April 17, 2025

With deep sadness and broken hearts, we announce the passing of Curvin Laray Martin, who left us on April 17, 2025 at the age of 19.

Curvin was a gentle, thoughtful, and deeply caring young man. He had a quiet way about him, a thoughtful spirit, and a soft but sincere smile. Though he often carried the weight of the world in silence, he gave so much of himself to those he loved. His time with us was far too short, but the impact he made on those around him will last forever.

Curvin is survived by his loving parents, J. Michael Martin of Lebanon, and Marcia J. Martin of Newville; and by five beloved siblings: Calvin (Janelle) of Clare, MI; Justin of Mount Gretna; Chadwin of Shippensburg; Jarin of Mechanicsburg; and Jasmin of Lebanon; along with 2 nieces and one nephew. Curvin was preceded in death by his grandparents: John and Irene Martin, Richard Mclaughlin and Faye Foley; and uncle: Kevin Laray Nussbaum.

Family and friends are invited to attend a visitation to honor Curvin's life on Wednesday, April 23, 2025, at Kreamer & Lum Funeral Home, in Jonestown, PA. Visitation will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. A private burial will follow.

Though we mourn the loss of Curvin with aching hearts, we also celebrate the beauty of his life. We will carry his memory with us always and find comfort in the love he shared. His journey may have ended, but the light he brought into this world will continue to shine through the lives of those he touched. Rest easy, Curvin. Your light will never fade.

“ Like many others, I knew Curvin only online as ASonicSloth. While I never knew him in person, I can say that everytime we gathered up to play some games we had a blast. Even though I'm just a random foreign person half a world away, in Romania, I still feel the loss. I will miss his presence in our gaming circle for sure.

I give my condolences to the family and friends. I am very sorry for your loss. He will be missed in our gaming circles for sure, and I'll remember him as the kind and funny person he was.

“ Curvin is my nephew. My last memory of him was as he was perched on our cabin porch railing, smiling and relaxing with his cousins at a family gathering. He was a sensitive and caring young man, and I am devastated at this loss. I deeply desire to be a comfort to his parents and siblings and to care for others who are hurting.

“ So sad to hear the news. I knew Curvin as ASonicSloth through gaming with the Regulators. He was great to chat to and have a laugh with. He had knowledge beyond his years, even back then and taught this Gen X a gaming trick or two.

My condolences to his family and friends, from all of the gamers from New Zealand who knew him.

“ I knew Curvin as ASonicSloth. I called him Sonic. Even before I ever spoke to him or played a game w/him, we would interact and hangout in chat with others. Once I got a PC I finally got to meet and play w/Sonic and our friend group grew. Sonic was always a joy to play with, I can never remember a single instance of him ever being upset or frustrated w/others. I'm notorious for being horrible w/Computers and I knew all I ever had to do was @Sonic and he would be there to help me, as he would others. Sonic and I would play games together frequently and he would always be me my partner. Over the past 1 1/2 yr I would say we had become closer as friends. We would often n talk and I would tease him that, okay I'll stop old man lecturing u now. We both drove and did deliveries and would often msg about our day and trips and earnings, and even post funny vids of us singing in our cars. I may have been older than Sonic but I considerd him a good friend and I will miss him dearly.

My deepest condolences to you the Martin Family.

“ I first met Curvin on May 30th, 2024, when he visited our family for the first time. From the moment we met, I could tell he was someone truly special—gentle, kind, and full of warmth. He had this quiet way of making people feel seen and valued, and it didn’t take long to realize just how amazing of a human he was.

We were lucky to spend more time with him after that visit, and each time only deepened my appreciation for his caring and compassionate spirit. His presence was a gift, and his absence leaves a real ache in our hearts.

I’ll miss you, Curvin. Thank you for the light you shared. You were a beautiful soul, and I’m so grateful our paths crossed.

“ I’ve had the pleasure of knowing Curvin as ASonicSloth over the past 3-4 years and I am so grateful to have had the opportunity to welcome such a ray of light into my life. Sonic always brought joy and laughter to the games we played and conversations we had together. We had the most wonderful thing going where we would all post when we would hear the song “Pink Pony Club” come on the radio in the car and all celebrate together that we heard it again. Sonic posted it so many times and it brought a huge smile to my face every single time.

I will think of Curvin every time I hear this song for the rest of my life with a smile on my face. Sonic you are well loved and truly missed.

“ I have to thank the family SO very much for raising a genuinely wonderful human being. We (his gaming family) knew Curvin and loved him dearly. I didn't realize I could mourn someone I never met in person. We all shared so very many great memories and I can't even imagine how much more it hurts to those who raised him. We miss you buddy.

“ Like many who have commented here I knew Curvin online through Discord and Twitch. He was always a soft spoken young man with a tendency for picking out good friends and acquaintances. While I may not have known the interworking's of his life outside of games, I can say with confidence he was one of the most mature and well thought people I have came across, especially for his age. He always knew just what to say to get everyone in a chat to laugh and chuckle

My condolences go out to the Martin family for their loss of a son, nephew, grandson, and many other titles that I cant even begin to think of. While he may no longer be with us physically, he will be held in the thoughts and memories of many of the people who's presence was graced by him.

“ I was introduced to Curvin by a friend of mine online, and while I was introduced to him within the late summer or early autumn of 2024 he always felt like a man I've known for a long time and as well as a man I felt comfortable sharing my deep thoughts with, and while I didn't have the chance to meet him in person, I'm glad I met him through my friend and I'm also glad I had the chance to make memories with him that I will never forget, I will miss seeing him around as it won't be the same without him.

I give my condolences to the Martin family for losing Curvin way too soon. He was a man who has left a lasting impact on everyone he knew as a friend and I will honor him by remembering him as a great person who always stood by you whenever you needed him.

“ I met Curvin online 3 years ago and since then he has probably been one of the best friends I've had in my life. He was always mature, kind, and always thought things through logically. Whenever we would play games together he would always make the mood in the group go up no matter the situation. He was always making everyone laugh and was always having a good time. I would often start arguments with him over the smallest things even after everything I said to him he would always manage to forgive me. It was a pleasure and an honor being friends with Curvin and may he rest in peace, and to the Martin family I send my deepest condolences.

“ My heart goes out to the Martin family. I knew Curvin as ASonicSloth and met him through some mutual online friends. He was a joy to have around whenever gaming with me or the community of gamers. Like many others have pointed out, his passing has affected so many of us. I will cherish the memories I have of him. Rest in Peace, Curvin (Sonic).

“ I met Curvin through a streaming platform called Twitch on January 27th, 2021, and from that day on, he became one of the most important people in my life, as well as my best friend. We began dating long-distance on March 1st, 2024, and I will forever be grateful for the time we spent together—both online and in person. All the happy memories we made will always hold a special place in my heart.

I never would have imagined that, so soon after our difficult breakup, we'd be faced with the even greater heartbreak of losing him.

Curvin had a sharp eye for people—he was very particular about who he let into his life, and he didn't waste his energy on anyone who didn't feel genuine. But for those he did choose, his loyalty and love were unmatched. He built deep, lasting connections, and those of us lucky enough to be in his circle knew just how much he cared.

To his family, I want to extend my deepest condolences. I can't imagine the pain you're going through, but I hope you find some comfort in knowing how deeply he was loved and how much he meant to those of us who truly knew him.

May we all find peace in remembering the joy he brought to our lives.

“ I would like to give my deepest condolences to the Martin family. Much like the others here, I knew Curvin as Sonic through gaming. He was one of the first people I met roughly 5 years ago and was always a pleasure to play with, always kind and always respectful. To say his passing has affected our whole community would be a drastic understatement. The little time we had with him has had an impact on our lives forever. To Curvin... Sonic, it was an absolute honor knowing you, rest peacefully my friend and thank you for the good times and the joy you brought to all of us.

“ To the Martin Family, We were blessed to know your son, perhaps not by the way you named him but as his gaming name. A Sonic Sloth. I was introduced to him in our gaming community and found him to be a skilled gamer and a very nice young man. He was mature for his age and if he never told you you would assume him to be much older than his years. He was kind, respectful, and generous of his friendships and of his ability to just be nice. Qualities that made him very liked with in the community. We can only assume he was given those qualities from his family and I would like to thank you for allowing us to get to know him. He will be missed, he will be remembered. We share in your pain this loss. Please know you are not alone in your grief. "A SONIC SLOTH someone who was cherished for their laid-back yet impactful presence. Speed with slow calculated steps. Perhaps this is truly who he was 5 steps ahead but calculated. No matter how you define him he will always be defined as our Friend! Curvin (Sonic Sloth) Martin, Rest in peace we will take it from here!

“ Although, I didn't know your son I do know he was a joy to watch him play pubg. He seem to enjoy his gaming a lot. He will be surely missed in the gaming community.

“ Curvin or how I knew him as Sonic, was always a joy to game with. He was a great part of the gamer community and one of the first I met when I started. Always warm and friendly with a great sense of humor. He never had a bad thing to say about anyone we played with. Gaming will not be the same.

“ Although I never met him in person, I am very happy to have been able to have known him for the 5 years that I did. Anytime I hung out with him playing games online he was always super funny and brought joy into anything we played together. I enjoyed the time we spent together and hope we get to do it again in another life. I will never forget you, Aaron (Pumpkn)
