

Dale B. Mowrer

August 10, 1936 - January 24, 2015

Dale B. Mowrer, 78, of Myerstown passed away on January 24, 2015 at the Good Samaritan Hospital. He was the husband of the late Patsy B. Mowrer, who passed away in 2007.

Born in Bethel, on August 10, 1936, he was the son of the late Walter and Lillian Merkey Mowrer. Dale began his working career as a truck driver in 1954 and ended his trucking career in 1999. He worked for Bashore Trucking . After trucking, he worked at Wal-Mart within the store. Dale was a member of the Frystown Fire Company and had worked as a police officer with the Bethel Township Police Department. Dale's interests included wood working and hunting. His greatest pleasure was spending time at his camper on the beach in Delaware and spending time with Rosemary McCarty. It was Rosemary, Hailey, Madison and their entire family that gave great love, care, affection, help, and brought a great joy to Dale during the past few years of his life. Surviving is a daughter, Debra A. and husband Tab Barber of Myerstown, grandsons, Justin Keefer of Ephrata, and Dallas Mease of Philadelphia, a great grandchild, and a brother Glen Mowrer of Bernville. He was preceded in death by his brothers, Walter and Clarence Mowrer, and a sister Dorothy Smith.
