Danny and I were best friends and neighbors from elementary to high school. At the 7:11 mark in this video, he is holding two sharks by their tails with a garage door in the background...that's my boyhood home at 110 E. Poplar Street in Lebanon. Only Danny and I know the full story of those sharks...lol. We caught them fishing with my dad on the Chesapeake Bay in waters off the Patuxent Naval Air Station and Danny wanted to keep them for their jaws/teeth. After we made a mess of carving them up, we dumped those sharks in the woods off State Drive across the road from the VA Medical Center. Whether it was true or not, Danny and I could swear we smelled the odor for days riding our school bus with the windows down. Good times...Danny was an adventurous young man with a good heart. I'll always regret not keeping in touch with him over the years. One of the last things I remember him saying to me when we bumped into each other by chance at the old theatre at the Lebanon Valley Mall was "let's go fishing again sometime."

“ I only saw Danny a few times at family events at Gina’s house but he was always very sweet and always seemed like a very happy person. I hate the fact that cancer has taken yet another life way to soon. My deepest sympathies go out to all the family and I pray for God’s loving comfort for them all during this difficult time of loss.
