

David B. Campbell

January 8, 1953 - July 11, 2011

David B. Campbell, 58, of 918 Mifflin St., died Monday, July 11, 2011, in his residence. Born in Lykens on January 8, 1953, he was the son of Mona D. Lebo Campbell Ritzman and the late Rev. Clyde H. Campbell of Lebanon. David was an Artist and Interior Decorator and a loving father and friend to all who had known him. Because of his artistic ability, his house was on the "Tour of Homes" in Lebanon. Surviving, in addition to his mother, are his sons, Matheau D. Ringley and Justin Corbett; a sister, Debra Zipp; four nephews; and two grand-nieces. He was preceded in death by sister, Carla G. Keefer. Services at the discretion of the family. Contributions can be made to the Aids Fund, 1315 Spruce St., 4th Floor, Philadelphia, PA 19107 in David's memory.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

DC

“David was my best friend. I never met a man more loving and caring than David. He dedicated his life to helping other less fortunate people he met throughout his life. He always brightened up my day. My love for him is unending. I will never forget David and I know there will never be a friendship with anyone else as special as the one I had in David Campbell.

---

Dana Conley - July 21, 2011 at 12:00 AM