“ My deepest sympathy to Dave’s families. It’s been a very long time since I’ve seen him. I remember him as that kind, cute, funny kid that had to try and keep up with his older brothers. He was very fortunate to grow up with the family he had and parents who loved him dearly. I would imagine he was a terrific husband, Dad, and Pop. Now, an angel to watch over all of them. God bless you all.

“ We always loved seeing David and his family at any event, but especially when he and Cindy would come back from SC to visit and eat in at Lazzaros. David never missed a chance to always great my family and give us all hugs. Lazzaro Merone’s favorite memory of Dave is when he came in the restaurant and sing “DO you like my lasagna”. Always brought a smile on our faces. He will be dearly missed by the whole family.

“ I can’t share just one memory of Dave. There are a thousand memories I’d like to share but the pain is too raw. It hurts too much to think of all the wonderful moments that I shared with Dave. He was one of the best people I’ve ever had the privilege of knowing. A truly special person who only had love and humor and kindness in his heart. A man who I will forever cherish the time I got to spend with him. I loved him deeply and I will miss him dearly. RIP Dave. Forever in my heart. ❤️
